The magazine

The AWISA magazine is published by AWISA Ltd to provide the woodworking industry with a source of information about all matters affecting the industry and to give AWISA members the opportunity to promote their products. The magazine is distributed to the cabinet, kitchen, joinery, furniture, fit-out and other timber and panel product industries.

Four issues are published annually. The magazine is A4 in size and full colour throughout. Only AWISA members can advertise in the magazine. Membership enquiries are welcome.

editorial

AWISA's policy is to produce quality editorial about business and technical issues that affect the woodworking industry, plus information about members' products.

Advertisers are guaranteed editorial. The minimum amount of editorial space provided is equivalent to the size of paid advertising space. AWISA reserves the right to vet and edit submitted material.

Editorial artwork is emailed to members for overview to check for errors but the final selection and size of images in the layout and the design of the layout is AWISA's decision.

AWISA can assist members who require help in writing editorial. AWISA welcomes editorial submissions from end user trade associations and educational institutions, and also welcomes story ideas from members.

distribution

The magazine is distributed to a mailing list made up as follows:

- Companies who registered to visit the last 3 AWISA exhibitions
- Members of end-user trade associations that release their lists to AWISA or whose lists are on the public record
- Members' client lists. Some major AWISA members have provided their client lists to assist AWISA make a strong mailing list. Submissions of names are welcome from any member
- End-users who have asked to be added to the mailing list.

Distribution exceeds 13,000 copies.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS FOR MAGAZINE and eNEWS

Advertiser's responsibility: The Australian Woodworking Industry Suppliers Association Limited (AWISA), ABN 44 134 548 253, makes every effort to ensure optimal reproduction of advertiser's artwork. It is the advertiser's responsibility to ensure that files conform to the specifications in this media kit. Any non-complying files will be returned to the advertiser. AWISA may advise the advertiser to make adjustments if AWISA suspects the file will not print well. However AWISA will not be liable to reimburse any perceived loss from lack of clarity.

The advertiser acknowledges that they are the owner of, or legally authorised to use the information supplied to AWISA including trade marks, trade names, designs, photographs and illustrations. AWISA will not be held responsible for incorrect information supplied. If AWISA makes any errors during the production process, the advertiser will be compensated by discounted fees on further advertising. AWISA's liability is limited to the cost of the advertisement. AWISA relies on advertisers to make sure material provided to AWISA complies with Australian laws. AWISA accepts no responsibility for breaches of Australian law by advertisers.

Content: AWISA reserves the right to reject any material it believes contravenes any law, is offensive or indecent, or that may not be in the best interests of relationships between suppliers to the industry. With the exception of pre-booked preferential positions, AWISA retains the right to determine the presentation, format, placement, order and position of material supplied.

Distribution: AWISA will not guarantee the availability of the magazine at a particular destination, by a certain date, or on a continuous basis. The distribution list is not available to advertisers.

Privacy: The collection of personal details may be required for the purpose of communicating with advertisers. This information will be stored securely and will not be released to any other party.

Indemnity: The advertiser agrees to hold harmless and indemnify AWISA from all damages, costs and expenses of any nature whatsoever, for which AWISA may become liable by reason of its publication of the advertiser's advertisements or editorials.
